

We are looking for experienced Backend engineers/developers to work on our dashboards & website, closely with the founders to enhance and further build our core platform, restful apis and mobile applications. A Techie who has Expert understanding of server side development and has handle server (AWS), should be proficient in PHP and Maria DB/MySQL and has a great experience in dealing with server side development and APIs. One who breathe's PHP day-in, day-out and yet feel that there's more that he can learn.

Job Objectives

Take complete responsibility of Bookeventz.com backend, you and your Backend team will be responsible to deliver the best of the best website and API performance.

Lead the Backend team at bookeventz, mentor team and get hands on the website development, take control of key APIs and database optimizations

Build reusable code and libraries for future use and implementation of web projects to meet the needs of the organization.

You will collaborate with product manager and engineering manager to plan and develop the backend structure, further to provide support to frontend team with APIs and other key integrations

PHP and Database Optimize application for maximum speed and scalability.

Developing Key features of dashboard, payment gateways and website related development.

Challenges that we are working on:

Server & Database optimizations.

Faster API responses.

Faster data and report response.

Requirements.

- 3+ years of experience in Backend stack.
- A deep understanding of PHP/MySQL/Maria DB
- Working knowledge of Vue.js/React preferred.
- Understanding of server-side development with PHP.
- Proficient understanding third party API integration
- Have worked on CRM/Dashboard tools for internal teams
- Good understanding of Database principles and ensuring that application will adhere to them.
- Comfortable with high paced environment.
- Well versed in agile methodology.
- Experience in software shipping cycles (dev, deploy, release, CI) and open-source software dev.
- Basic understanding of Bootstrap or any other similar UI.
- Deep experience with creating Restful APIs

- Architecting the Backend of a web-app using PHP & MySql/Maria DB
- You know the cost of HTTP requests and are always looking for ways to improve the performance of the product across devices.
- Has already worked and managed AWS servers for product based company

Required Skills:

- Good understanding of MVC framework.
- Experienced in PHP, Javascript, jquery Ajax , MySql, Codeigniter
- Experience with build tools like webpack or grunt is a must.
- Worked on Database optimization.
- Understanding of code versioning tool like Git.
- 2+ years of experience with internet companies.
- 3+ year of experience in PHP/Codeigniter
- Be on constant lookout for best user experience practices around the world, and bringing new ideas to the table to enhance backend performance.

Good to have experience

- React JS, Redux framework.
- Working knowledge of Python and Node js
- Prior experience of development E-commerce portals or marketplace website.